ABOUT TRIO UPWARD BOUND

TRIO Upward Bound (TRIO UB) at the University of Minnesota's College of Education and Human Development is a pre-college US Department of Education federal grant program. We offer year-round, intensive and holistic college-readiness skill building for 118 Minneapolis youth at North, South, Patrick Henry, and Edison high schools who come from low income backgrounds and who are potential first generation college going students. Our goal is for students to not only get into college but to earn a college degree.

TRIO UB at the UMN has been serving Minneapolis students since 1966.
