Second Language Education M.Ed. Professional Studies
Final Project Scoring Rubric

Student: _____ Date: _____

Final Project Title: _____

Criteria	5 Exceeds expectations and reflects strong understanding of concepts	3 Meets expectations and reflects good understanding of concepts	1 Needs Improvement
Topic identification The student identifies an issue or topic that is meaningful and significant to his/her practice.	The student identifies a meaningful topic and demonstrates its significance to his/her practice.	The student identifies a good topic and is able to show its potential to impact his/her practice.	The student identifies a topic that lacks importance and/or is not able to show how it might impact this/her practice.
Project Proposal The student follows the project proposal guidelines completely and submits the proposal for approval in a timely fashion.	The student submits a detailed proposal that clearly adheres to the guidelines and submits it well in advance of beginning work on the project.	The student submits an adequate proposal that mostly adheres to the guidelines and submits it in advance of beginning work on the project.	The student either does not submit a proposal or submits one that is incomplete. S/he may submit it late or after work has begun on the project.
IRB Approval (if applicable) The student follows IRB guidelines carefully and submits the IRB proposal in a timely fashion.	The student submits a detailed and complete IRB proposal that clearly adheres to the guidelines and submits it well in advance of beginning work on the project.	The student submits an adequate IRB proposal and submits it in advance of beginning work on the project.	The student submits an IRB proposal that is incomplete or requires a great deal of work on the part of the adviser. The IRB proposal was submitted late in the process.
The Final Project Experience/Report The student creates a final project that shows a depth of understanding and learning.	The student demonstrates superior understanding of the issue or topic and creates a powerful final project report that is well-written and demonstrates depth of understanding and learning.	The student demonstrates acceptable understanding of the issue or topic and creates a good final project report that is generally well-written and demonstrates understanding and learning.	The student demonstrates minimal understanding of the issue or topic and creates a final project report that is not well-written and fails to adequately demonstrate understanding and learning.
Knowledge, Skills, and Research Base The student effectively uses, synthesizes, and reports key research and theory.	The student demonstrates superior use and integration of theory, research, and best practices. The final project report shows sophisticated use and integration of knowledge bases.	The student demonstrates acceptable use and integration of theory, research, and best practices. The final project shows good knowledge and integration of knowledge bases.	The student demonstrates minimum use and integration of theory, research, and best practices. The final project lacks rigor and fails to meet minimum standards for knowledge and use of theory bases.

Analysis/Results Conclusions, and/or Product The student effectively analyzes, summarizes, and creates a project demonstrating superior learning.	The final project report and/or product demonstrates sophisticated levels of understanding and application of the experience. It reflects superior learning.	The final project report and/or product demonstrates adequate levels of understanding and application of the experience. It reflects an acceptable level of learning.	The final project report and/or product demonstrates a minimum level of understanding and application of the experience. It fails to meet minimum standards for academic rigor.
Grammar, Syntax, and Mechanics The final project reflects highly skilled and cohesive writing of superior quality.	The student skillfully uses written language to communicate the purposes, procedures, and conclusions of the project. Stylistically, the writing flows coherently and fluently throughout the project and demonstrates a superior command of written communication.	The student uses written language effectively to communicate the purposes, procedures, and conclusions of the project although the adviser may need to make frequent content and/or mechanical suggestions. Stylistically, the writing makes sense, flows generally smoothly and demonstrates acceptable written expression.	The student uses marginally uses written language in the project and the adviser makes frequently content and/or mechanical suggestions. Stylistically, there are many errors in the cohesion, grammar, syntax, and mechanics. The adviser expresses concern about the student's written language.

30/35 – 26/31 = A
25/30 – 23/28 = A-
22/27 – 20/25 = B+
19/24 – 17/22 = B
16/21 – 14/19 = B-
13/18 – 11/16 = C+
10/15 – 8/13 = C

Comments: