© Stevahn & King, 2001

Interview Response Sheet

Name	Interview Question: Think of a time when people truly used an evaluation that you were part of. • Describe that evaluation. • What distinguished it from other evaluations you've participated in?
Key Group Ideas: Similarities? Common themes? Conclusions?

© Stevahn & King, 2001

The Three-Step Interview Technique

Cooperative Interviews

- ❑ The interview topic should be…
  - Relevant to the program evaluation
  - Useful for obtaining information
  - Meaningful and linked to the personal experiences of participants
  - Safe and non-threatening
  - Open ended, thought provoking, achievable
- ❑ Provide sample interview questions
  - What? Where? When? Why? How?
- ❑ Group members rotate roles (groups of 2 or 3)
  - Interviewer
  - Responder
  - Recorder… WORDS and SYMBOLS
- ❑ Arrange materials and work space to strengthen positive interdependence
  - One shared Interview Response Sheet per group
  - Group members seated around one table or knee to knee for close proximity
- ❑ After the interview, each group interprets/ uses the interview information
  - Similarities? Common themes? Predictions? Conclusions?
- ❑ Group members process social interaction
  - Inclusiveness… all voices sought and heard
  - Careful listening… TRUSTWORTHINESS enhances TRUST
- ❑ Acknowledgment and appreciation