Annie Helps a Dolphin – Oral Reading

Annie and her father recently moved to a small island. Annie was new to 14 the island, and had not made any friends. She hoped to meet a new friend soon. 30
Every day, Annie watched wild dolphins swimming in groups along the shore. 42
One day, Annie and her father went into town. They met a fisherman and 56 his daughter, Sue. Both girls were shy, but soon they began to talk about 70 dolphins. 71

"I love to watch the wild dolphins swimming along the shore," Annie told 84
Sue. 85

"Me, too!" said Sue. "In fact, I saw one swimming all by itself, just this 100 morning." 101

"Hmm, that's strange," said Annie. "I thought dolphins usually swam in 112 groups." 113

"Let's see if we can learn more about how dolphins are supposed to 126 behave," suggested Sue. 129

They went to the small library in town, and looked for some books about 143 dolphins. They learned that dolphins normally do not swim alone. 153

"Maybe the dolphin you saw was lost," said Annie. 162
They decided to call the animal rescue office on the island to ask for help. 177
Sure enough, the rescuers discovered that the dolphin had been separated from 189 its family. They were able to lead it back to its family. 201

"I'm so happy we were able to help the dolphin," said Sue. 213

"Me, too!" said Annie, "And I'm happy we met each other, too! This turned 227 out to be a great day!" 233

Walt Disney – Oral Reading

Walt Disney was born in 1901 in Chicago, Illinois. As a child, he liked to draw. 16
When he was 16, he joined the Red Cross. He drove an ambulance during World 31 War One. After the war ended, he made short cartoons. Soon, he ran out of 46 money. He decided to go to Hollywood to make more money. He went to 60
California with one bag and $20 in his pocket. 69

Disney worked hard for a long time. He created Mickey Mouse, the most 82 famous cartoon ever. In 1937, his movie, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, was 96 first shown. It was the first full-length cartoon movie. Disney made many more 110 movies that we still watch today. 116

In the 1940s, Walt Disney had the idea to build a fun park for families. His 132 idea grew bigger and bigger. He knew he needed a lot of space for his park. He 149 wanted it to have everything—a mountain, rockets, fun rides, and a fairy castle! 163

Years after Walt Disney first had the idea, Disneyland opened in 1955 in 176 California. Admission cost one dollar. By 1965, 50 million visitors had come to visit 190
the Magic Kingdom. 193

Disney died in 1966. A few years later, his next dream project opened. It was 208
Disney World, in Florida. 212

If you ever visit Disneyland or Disney World, go to a Disney movie, or watch 227 the Disney Channel, you can think of the man with big ideas who started it all. 243
