Teacher Guide for The Paper Bag Princess

- ◊ This guide is intended to help you support students as they identify important sentences in the text and connect them to other important parts of the text they already read.
- ◊ As long as students can reasonably justify their responses, you can accept them; the idea is to keep the students focused on the most important, highly connected events in the text.
- ◊ Some of the connections are similar; it is not necessary to make a connection after every page.

Possible Important Sentences	Possible Connections	Inferences
p. 6 Elizabeth decided to chase the dragon and get Ronald back.	p. 2 She was going to marry a prince named Ronald. p. 2 Unfortunately, a dragon smashed her castle, burned all her clothes with his fiery breath, and carried off Prince Ronald.	Elizabeth decided to chase the dragon and get Ronald back BECAUSE she wanted to marry him, but the dragon carried him off.
p. 6 So she put on the paper bag and followed the dragon.	p. 6 Elizabeth decided to chase the dragon and get Ronald back. p. 6 The only thing she could find that was not burnt was a paper bag.	She put on the paper bag and followed the dragon BECAUSE she was going to chase him to get Ronald back, and the paper bag was all she could find to wear.
p. 8 She took hold of the knocker and banged on the door.	p. 6 Elizabeth decided to chase the dragon and get Ronald back.	She was chasing the dragon, and probably thought he was in the cave.
p. 10 "Wait," shouted Elizabeth, "Is it true that you are the smartest and fiercest dragon in the whole world?"	p. 8 The dragon said "Come back tomorrow" and slammed the door. p. 6 Elizabeth decided to chase the dragon and get Ronald back.	Elizabeth was trying to get Ronald back, and so she was trying to keep the dragon talking to her instead of slamming the door in her face. Even better (but not necessary) inference: Elizabeth was trying to trick the dragon so she could get Ronald back.
p. 12 "Is it true," said Elizabeth, "that you can burn up ten forests with your fiery breath?"	p. 6 Elizabeth decided to chase the dragon and get Ronald back.	Elizabeth was trying to get Ronald back, and so she was trying to keep the dragon talking to her instead of slamming the door in her face. Even better (but not necessary) inference: Elizabeth was trying to trick the dragon so she could get Ronald back.
NOTE: Good stopping point after p. 12

Possible Important Sentences	Possible Connections	Inferences
p. 14 The dragon didn't even have enough fire left to cook a meatball.	p. 12 The dragon breathed out so much fire that he burnt up 50 forests. p. 14 The dragon breathed out so much fire that he	Elizabeth encouraged him to breathe out so much fire that he didn't have any fiery breath left. Elizabeth was trying to trick the dragon/tire him out so she
p. 16 Elizabeth said, "Dragon, is it true that you can fly around the world in just ten seconds?"	p. 6 Elizabeth decided to chase the dragon and get Ronald back.	Elizabeth was trying to trick the dragon/tire him out so she could get Ronald back.
p. 18 When he got back he was too tired to talk, and he lay down and went straight to sleep.	p. 16 The dragon flew all the way around the world in just 10 seconds. p. 18 The dragon flew all the way around the world	Elizabeth encouraged him to fly so much that he was exhausted. Elizabeth was trying to trick the dragon/tire him out so she
p. 20 The dragon was so tired he didn't even move.	pp. 12-18 (Refer to all the fire breathing and flying)	Elizabeth succeeded in tiring out the dragon.
p. 22 He looked at her and said, "Elizabeth, you are a mess! You smell like ashes, your hair is all tangled and you are wearing a dirty old paper bag."	p. 6 Elizabeth decided to chase the dragon and get Ronald back. p. 6 The only thing she could find that was not burnt was a paper bag.	Elizabeth was a mess BECAUSE she was trying to get Ronald back by chasing the dragon, and a paper bag was all she had to wear.
p. 24 They didn't get married after all.	p. 22 He looked at her and said, "Elizabeth, you are a mess! You smell like ashes, your hair is all tangled and you are wearing a dirty old paper bag."	They didn't get married after all BECAUSE Ronald is a bum (he didn't appreciate all she had done for him; all he cared about was how she looked).