The Spider on the Mountain – Oral Reading

A long time ago, a queen and her two sons lived in a palace on the top of a 19 mountain. At the base of the mountain, a giant spider had spun a web 33 among the rocks. One day, the boys wanted to explore the mountain, but 46
the queen told them not to leave the palace. A 55

"It's so boring playing inside all day," said the older son to his brother when 70
their mother was napping. "Let's go on an adventure." B 79

They quietly left the palace. On their way down the mountain, they saw 92 interesting plants and several large birds. One of the queen's servants saw 104 them leave. He reported that they had disobeyed their mother. C The queen 116 was quite upset, and called for her huntsman. 124

"You must go look for my sons and return them to the palace at once," she 140
ordered. 141

After a while, the boys began to climb back home. At the edge of a cliff, 157 they heard a scratching sound. The giant spider appeared, trapping them on 169
the cliff. 171

"Back off!" they yelled, but the spider scooped them up and took them to 185
its web. 187

The huntsman heard their voices. He searched until he found the web. He 200 cut it down and fought the spider until it retreated. He rescued the boys and 215 returned them to the palace. The queen was grateful that her sons were 228 unharmed, and they promised they would never go exploring without 238 permission again. D 240

Helen Keller

Helen Keller was born in Alabama in 1880. When she was a small child, Helen got very sick. She became deaf and blind because of her illness. 27

There were not many schools for children who were deaf and blind. So, Helen's mother found a special teacher just for Helen. The teacher's name was Anne Sullivan. In 1887, Anne Sullivan moved to Alabama to live with Helen's family. 67

Anne tried to teach Helen the names of things. She gave Helen a doll to hold. She used her finger to spell the word "doll" in Helen's hand. Anne was trying to teach Helen the word for "doll." But Helen did not understand. She became angry, and kicked and screamed at Anne. 119

Anne did not give up. She kept trying. She poured cool water on one of Helen's hands. In Helen's other hand, Anne spelled "water." Helen suddenly understood that Anne was teaching her the name for "water." Finally Helen understood that Anne was teaching her words. Now Anne could teach her the names of things around her. Helen began to learn very quickly. 181

Helen worked hard to learn to read, write, and speak. In 1904, she graduated from college. She wrote a book about her life. She became a famous speaker and writer. She taught others about helping people with disabilities. 219

Helen died in 1968. Today, we can still learn from her life. She showed that people with disabilities can be successful. 240
