Thank you for being part of the University of Minnesota Making the Right Connections project. We would like to know your thoughts about implementing in the Making the Right Connections activity. Please be honest. We will use your feedback to make changes to the Making the Right Connections activity. Rate items based on your experience across Phase 1 and Phase 2. Please feel free to elaborate on your response to any question.

1. How helpful was answering questions and making connections in helping your students understand the stories they read during Making the Right Connections?

1	2	3	4
Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

2. How helpful was the prompt "Look back, think of a connection, and connect it" in helping students answer questions during Making the Right Connections?

1	2	3	4
Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

3. If you implemented the CAUSAL condition, how did you feel about asking your students to answer causal questions?

1	2	3	4
I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

4. If you implemented the GENERAL condition, how did you feel about asking your students to answer general questions?

1	2	3	4
I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

5. If you implemented BOTH conditions, did you have a preference for the CAUSAL or GENERAL CONDITION? Please explain your response?

6. How did you feel about asking your students to answer questions DURING reading where they stopped reading at each letter and answered questions?

1	2	3	4
I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

7. How did you feel about asking your students to answer questions AFTER reading where they read the entire story, then stopped at each letter and answered questions?

1	2	3	4
I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

8. Did you have a preference for the online or offline version of the condition you taught? If yes, why? Please write your response below.

9. How helpful was the modeling (provided in the introductory lessons) in helping students figure out the answer?

1	2	3	4
Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

10. How helpful was the pre-teaching component in activating background knowledge and learning vocabulary?

1	2	3	4
Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

11. How helpful was the partner sharing component in helping students answer questions?

1	2	3	4
Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

12. How helpful was the partner sharing component in maintaining student engagement during the questioning activity?

1	2	3	4
Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

13. How helpful was the prompting/feedback procedure in helping students figure out the answer during the intervention?

1	2	3	4
Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

14. How helpful was setting a goal in keeping students engaged and motivated?

1	2	3	4
Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

15. How helpful was giving points for making connections and following rules in keeping students engaged and motivated?

1	2	3	4
Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

16. How helpful was giving stickers to your students when they met their goal in keeping students motivated?

1	2	3	4
Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

17. Do you have other suggestions for maintaining student engagement? Please write your response below.

18. How appropriate did you think the stories were in terms of age appropriateness, interest, and level of challenge (not too easy, not too difficult)?

a. Androcles and the Lion – A story about a Greek slave named Androcles and a Lion that helped him.

1	2	3	4
Very Inappropriate	Inappropriate	Appropriate	Very Appropriate

b. A Different Aladdin- A story about Aladdin, a boy who wanted to have a lot of stuff, and a genie who helped him learn what made him happy.

1	2	3	4
Very Inappropriate	Inappropriate	Appropriate	Very Appropriate

c. Bremen Town Band- A story about some animals who decide to leave their owners and go to the town of Bremen to be free and become musicians.

1	2	3	4
Very Inappropriate	Inappropriate	Appropriate	Very Appropriate

d. Double-Take Jake- A story about a boy who wants to do his best to win the swim meet.

1	2	3	4
Very Inappropriate	Inappropriate	Appropriate	Very Appropriate

e. Emperor and the Peasant Boy- A story about a peasant boy and his family who live in Mexico during the time of the Aztec Empire.

1	2	3	4
Very Inappropriate	Inappropriate	Appropriate	Very Appropriate

f. Paper Bag Princess- A story about a Princess who chases after a dragon.

1	2	3	4
Very Inappropriate	Inappropriate	Appropriate	Very Appropriate

19. If you could change anything about the intervention, what would you change and how would you change it?

Discussion points for the meeting:

1. Was the 30 minutes sufficient to complete six questions on average and keep students engaged?
2. Challenging Behaviors
3. Maintaining engagement
4. Modeling
5. Vocabulary
6. Number of kids per group
7. Online vs offline
8. Causal vs general
9. How comfortable they felt in delivering the intervention and how easy it was to deliver it to the students.