UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
Driven to Discover℠

Department of
EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

Application guide:
Counseling and student personnel psychology M.A.

Use this guide as a checklist to help you complete your application. All applications must be submitted by January 8, 2018.

Requirements for all applicants

Materials	How to submit
Application	Required fields: • Personal Information • Application Information • Educational Background • Languages • Awards and Activities • Employment/Residence Information • Financial Support • Applicant Statement #1 (Personal Statement) • Program Supplementary Information and Recommendations Optional fields: All other fields or application materials are optional but will be taken into consideration if submitted. Visit ApplyYourself to access the online application.
Application Fee	Visit the Graduate School's website for more information.
Program Application	Only required if you've taken a course for graduate credit (See form for details.) 1. Complete the Graduate Program Form Additional Application. 2. Upload it to ApplyYourself.

Transcripts	Upload your unofficial transcript to ApplyYourself. If you are admitted, you will need to provide an official transcript (sent to us by mail from the institution). An official, certified (signature and seal) with English Translations should be attached if the transcripts are not in English.
Letters of Recommendation	• Three letters of recommendation—from professors or others who are able to comment on your educational and professional goals and potential—are required. • References should also complete the Recommendation Form (with ratings information) in ApplyYourself.
Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores	Average GRE (after 2011): Verbal: 155; Quantitative: 156; Written: 4 • Self report your GRE scores in your ApplyYourself application. • Send your official GRE score to the Graduate School; use institution code 6874.
Applicant Statement #1 – Personal Statement	This statement is the most essential part of your application. It should outline your interests and professional goals and answer all of the following questions (in an essay format): • How did you become interested in this profession? • Discuss your motives for pursuing this profession. • What do you consider to be your strengths (specific skills, talents, aptitudes)? • What do you consider to be your weaknesses? • What aspects of or specific issues in counseling interest you most? • What kinds of work do you see yourself doing five years after you get your degree? Which track would you like to pursue (school counseling, mental health counseling, or higher education counseling?) Please describe briefly any participation in research, counseling activities, or employment which might be relevant to your application. • What specific factors have led you to apply to Minnesota for this specialization? • Discuss your expectations of this graduate program

Resume/Curriculum Vitae (CV)	Include your past professional, academic, and volunteer experiences as they relate to your work in the fields of psychology, counseling, education, and research.

Additional requirements for international applicants

Materials	How to submit
English Language Test Scores (TOEFL, IELTS, etc.)	Report your TOEFL, IELTS, or MELAB scores (non-native English speakers only). Minimum TOEFL (non-native English speakers only) • Minimum overall score: 79 • Writing: 21 • Reading: 19 • Paper-based TOEFL: 550 • IELTS: 6.5 • MELAB: 80 Visit the Graduate School's website for more information.

Optional application materials

Materials	How to submit
Articles, term papers, theses, or reports of experimental investigations	Upload publications and articles in the Program Supplementary Information section of the ApplyYourself online application under Writing Samples.
Applicant Statement #2 – Diversity Statement	Submitting the diversity statement is optional, however, you are encouraged to submit a statement (per the instructions provided in ApplyYourself) if you feel that submitting such an essay will add important information to your application.
Extenuating Circumstances	You may upload a brief statement explaining any extenuating circumstances that may have affected your grades or test scores.
Program Supplementary Information – Upload #1	If you wish to be considered for a Common Ground Consortium fellowship for African American students, please be sure to indicate this on your program application, and then upload a statement briefly addressing the following question: Given that the University of Minnesota is a public grant institution, it is imperative that CGC scholars can both benefits personally from their membership in the program as well as further the university's founding mission to contribute to scholarship that benefits the local and greater communities. Please describe how your participation as a CGC scholar would do the following: • Enhance your graduate student experience • Prepare you for your chosen career • Benefit the public

For more information

Visit: z.umn.edu/cspp-apply/

Contact: cspp@umn.edu or 612-624-6083

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
+ HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

As of 12/14/17