Student Name: _____ School: _____

Thank you for being part of the University of Minnesota Making the Right Connections project. I would like to know how you felt about learning how to make In-the-Text connections. Please be honest. No one in your school will see your answers, and your answers will not affect your school grade. Your ideas will help us make the activity better to help other fourth graders like you.

I will read each question and the answer choices aloud to you. Please circle just ONE answer that best shows how you feel. For some of the questions, I will write down what you say.

1. How helpful was it to answer questions and make In-the-Text connections to understand the texts we read?

Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

2. After I (your tutor) asked you a question, I (your tutor) asked you to "Think of a connection, look back at the text, and connect it" (point to poster on binder). How helpful was it to "Think of a connection, look back, and connect it" to answer questions about the text we read?

Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

3. How helpful was it to share your connection with a partner before I (your tutor) called on someone to share with the whole group?

Very unhelpful	Not helpful	Helpful	Very helpful

Student Name: _____ School: _____

4. How did you feel about setting a goal for the number of points to earn each session?

I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

5. How did you feel about receiving points for making In-the-Text connections and following the rules?

I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

6. How did you feel about receiving stickers when your team met the goal?

I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

Student Name: _____ School: _____

7. How much did you like or dislike the stories that we read together:

   a. "Little Singing Frog" – A story about a frog who sang so beautifully that a prince wanted to marry her.

I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

   b. "Emperor and the Peasant Boy" -- A story about a peasant boy and his family who lived in Mexico during the time of the Aztec Empire.

I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

   c. "A Different Aladdin" -- A story about Aladdin, a boy who wanted to have a lot of stuff, and a genie who helped him learn what made him happy.

I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

8. How much did you like or dislike the biographies that we read together:

   a. Jane Goodall and the Chimpanzees- A biography about Jane Goodall and what she learned about chimpanzees by observing them in Gombe National Park.

I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

   b. Cesar Chavez- A biography about how Cesar Chavez helped improve the lives of farm workers.

I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

Student Name: _____ School: _____

c. Olympic Champions- Biographies of 3 different athletes who overcame difficulties when they were young and became Olympic champions by working hard.

I disliked a lot	I disliked	I liked	I liked a lot

9. Which type of text did you prefer reading?

   a. Stories
   b. Biographies
   c. None of the above

10. Why you did you like (the stories/biographies) better than (the biographies/stories)?

11. When you are reading a text, what are some things you can do to help you understand what you are reading?

12. Would you recommend the In-The-Text Connections activity to other kids like you? Why or why not?