Thank you for being part of the University of Minnesota Making the Right Connections project. I would like to know how you felt about participating in the Making the Right Connections activity. Please be honest. No one in your school will see your answers, and your answers will not affect your school grade. Your ideas will help us make changes to the activity to help other fourth graders like you.

I will read each question and the answer choices aloud to you. Please circle just ONE answer that best shows how you feel. For some of the questions, I will write down what you say.
