Curriculum for M.Ed. Professional Studies Degree in Second Languages and Cultures combined with a Certificate in Dual Language and Immersion Education Option #2

This page outlines the requirements for the M.Ed. in SLC when combined with the 15-credit university certificate program in Dual Language and Immersion Education. The courses that appear in italics typeface below are the core requirements for the certificate. Note that all electives and course substitutions must be selected with faculty adviser approval.

M.Ed. Core Requirements
12 credits

- CI 5155—Contemporary Approaches to Instruction and Assessment (3 cr)
- CI 5177—Practical Research (3 cr) (to be taken toward end of program)
- CI 5186—School-Related Projects (3 cr) (to be taken at end of program)
- One course related to classroom uses of technology,
  e.g., CI 5351—Technology Tools for Educators (3 cr)

  OR alternate course approved by advisor
  (e.g., LgTT 5110 Technology in the Second Language Classroom)

SLC and Certificate Requirements
12 credits

- CI 5670 Foundations of Dual Language and Immersion Education (3 cr)
- CI 5660 Biliteracy Development in Dual Language/Immersion Classrooms (3 cr.) (temporary course number)
  OR CI 5656—Teaching Literacy in Second Language Classrooms (3 cr) if taken prior to Summer 2013
- CI 5671— Curriculum Development and Assessment in Dual Language/Immersion Classrooms (3 cr)
- CI 5672—Language-Focused Instructional Practices and Strategies for Dual Language/Immersion Classrooms (3 cr)

Electives
6 credits
For the Certificate in Dual Language and Immersion Education, the following electives are recommended and also count toward the M.Ed. Others should be selected in consultation with adviser.

- CI 5673 Immersion 101: Introduction to Immersion Teaching (2 cr)

  OR CI 5674 Immersion 101: Introduction to Immersion Teaching in Character-Based Languages (2 cr)

- CI 5660: Special Topics: Meeting the Challenges of Immersion Education (2 cr) (CARLA Summer Institute—topic changes periodically)