Department of Curriculum and Instruction

Suggested elective coursework: MA Specialization in ESL for Higher Education

AdEd Adult Education
5101: Strategies for Teaching Adults
5102: Adult Learning and Development
5201: Introduction to Adult Literacy
5203: Methods in Teaching Adult Literacy

CI Curriculum & Instruction
5147: Language, Culture and Education
5331: Intro to Instructional Systems and Technology
5361: Teaching via the Internet
5363: Intro to computer-Based Instructional Design
5364: Interactive Multimedia Instruction
5652: Integrating Culture in the 2nd Language Classroom
5656: Teaching Literacy
5657: Speaking and Listening in a Second Language
5658: Second Language Testing and Assessment

Epsy Educational Psychology
5114: Psychology of Student Learning
5151: Cooperative Learning
5221: Basic Principles of Educational Measurement
5261: Introductory Statistical Methods
5434: Counseling Adults in Transition

EngL English Literature
5603: Varieties of English
5605: Social Variation in American English

LgTT Language Teaching Technology
5101: Technology in the Language Classroom

Ling Linguistics
5101: Language Types and Linguistic Universals
5105,6: Field Methods in Linguistics
5201: Introduction to Syntax
5205: Semantics
5206: Linguistic Pragmatics
5302: Introduction to Phonology
5461: Conversation Analysis
5462: Field Research in Spoken Language

OLPD Organizational Leadership and Policy Development
5103 Comparative Education
5104 Strategies for International Dev. of Education Systems

Psy Psychology
5054 Psychology of Language

SLHS Speech Language Hearing Sciences
5304 Phonetics

SPAN Spanish
5711 Structure of Modern Spanish: Phonology
5717 Structure of Modern Spanish: Sociolinguistics
5718 Spanish Language Contact

Spch Speech Communication
5404: Language and Culture
5406: Communication and Gender
5411: Small Group Communication Research
5451: Intercultural Communication Processes
5461: Conversation Analysis
5462: Field Research in Spoken Language